

Aviat Networks Appoints Scott K. Halliday to Board of Directors

February 3, 2025

Brings extensive experience from serving on and advising Boards, with a strong background in Financial Audit and Governance

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 3, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Aviat Networks, Inc. (NASDAQ: AVNW), the expert in wireless transport and access solutions, today announced that Scott Halliday was appointed to the Company's Board of Directors effective January 31, 2025. Halliday, who is independent, will also serve on the Audit Committee.

Halliday brings 38 years of experience with EY (formerly Ernst & Young) in senior and board-level positions, including Chairman of EY's United Kingdom and Japan firms, and Director of EY Global, Americas, EMEA and Japan boards, where he led multibillion-dollar P&L operations and thousands of employees, while directing and navigating strategic growth. He also assisted in the development of the Audit Firm Governance Code in both the UK and Japan, working closely with the UK Financial Reporting Council (FRC) and Japan Financial Services Agency (JFSA).

As an active board member engaged in strategic decisions for EY's global development and operations, Halliday brings a wealth of experience in advising boards of directors and audit committees at Global 500 companies, as well as international governments to address key trends, governance and risk management.

"I would like to welcome Scott to our board," said John Mutch, Chairman of Aviat Networks. "He will be a strong addition to our team thanks to his wealth of experience and leadership in Corporate Finance and Governance to support Aviat's continued strategy of growth, increased profitability, and creating shareholder value."
